

Beach House Adds Amy Gerberry as Chief Operating Officer

Juno Beach, FL – October 12, 2026 – Beach House Behavioral Health, Inc. (“Beach House” or the “Company”), a substance abuse and mental health facility business, a portfolio company of BelHealth Investment Partners, LLC (“BelHealth”), a Fort Lauderdale-based healthcare private equity firm, announced the addition of Amy Gerberry as its Chief Operating Officer.

Amy has nearly 30 years of experience in the mental health field. Throughout her career with organizations including HCA (NYSE: HCA), Acadia (NASDAQ: ACHC), and Accanto Health, Amy has worked with diverse populations and multidisciplinary teams, bringing clinical expertise, leadership, and compassion to her work. Having lived and worked across multiple states, she has also built a broad national network of mental health professionals and treatment providers who share her commitment to accessible quality care. Her work is grounded in collaboration, connection and the belief that together, we can make a lasting difference in mental health recovery.

Dr. Mark Pundt, CEO of Beach House stated, “Beach House has built its reputation on the strength of its people and we strive to be the best-in-class, multidisciplinary clinical and medical teams who bring our mission to life every day. Amy's appointment reinforces this strength and will help take our company to the next level. She brings not only more than 25 years of behavioral health leadership, but also a proven record of building and delivering high-quality programs, which is so important in what we do. Amy's operational expertise will help our teams do what they do best as we expand access to care.”

Amy Gerberry said, “From my very first conversations, I could feel the passion this team has for what they do and how deeply they care about the patients and families they serve. That kind of shared purpose is rare, and it is what makes exceptional care possible. These are dedicated, like-minded professionals, and it is a privilege to join them. I look forward to supporting their work and helping build on everything they have already achieved.”
